George Basinger Joins RedPeak Properties

DENVER – January 2011 – RedPeak Properties, one of the most respected apartment owners, acquirers and developers in Denver, announced that George Basinger has joined the company as Construction Project Manager. George will oversee the multi-million dollar renovation currently underway at 1600 Glenarm Place through to completion as well as manage RedPeak’s current apartment interiors renovation strategy.

“We have some major construction projects in progress and slated for 2011,” said Mark Windhager, Chief Operating Officer of RedPeak Properties. “George’s hiring was important for RedPeak to successfully get these projects completed on time and within budget. George has a tremendous amount of experience in major construction projects and we look forward to that experience and talent quickly becoming an asset for RedPeak.”

Prior to joining RedPeak Properties, Mr. Basinger was Project Manager with Fairfield Residential and Delwest Holdings. He holds a Master’s of Science in Construction Management from Colorado State University and attended the University of Northern Colorado for his undergraduate education. Basinger brings 8 years of multifamily construction management experience managing multiple redevelopment and new construction projects in the Denver area.
