RedPeak Properties announces the promotions of Joanna Pulido, Laura Gutierrez and Catherine Hollon

DENVER – July xx, 2010 – RedPeak Properties, one of the most respected apartment owners, acquirers and developers in Denver, is pleased to announce the recent promotions of three employees:

- Joanna Pulido has been promoted to portfolio manager with oversight of 1600 Glenarm Place and The Seasons of Cherry Creek. Joanna most recently served as a business manager at RedPeak.
- Laura Gutierrez was promoted to community manager at 1600 Glenarm Place; she most recently served as community manager at Cottonwood Creek.
- Catherine Hollon was promoted to community manager at Cottonwood Creek from assistant community manager at Heritage Creek.

“Like so many of our Team Members, these three individuals are key reasons why our properties continue to flourish and obtain above-market rents, even in these challenging times,” said Mark Windhager, chief operating officer of RedPeak Properties. “RedPeak is proud to provide the right support and training to our Team Members, which gives us solid bench strength while creating meaningful career opportunities for the RedPeak Team. It’s my pleasure to announce these recent promotions, and have Joanna, Laura and Catherine as members of our team.”
